

Font Forgeries by Weatherly Systems, Inc.

The font forging outfit Weatherly Systems Inc. (abbreviated WSI and W.S.I.) is "semi-defunct". There is still this site <http://www.weatherlysystems.com> registered by Weatherly Systems Inc. PO BOX 14303 Huntsville, Alabama, USA, but this website states that the font forging outfit Weatherly Systems Inc. founded by Michael Charness (formerly at 10027 Shadow Wood Drive, Huntsville, AL 35803 USA) is no longer selling or licensing fonts for redistribution.

Ferrari driver Michael Charness who also ran other outfits, e.g. the BBS Publisher's Paradise, made a fortune by selling "licenses" for his font forgeries to other "resellers". For example, the printer company Canon purchased as "reseller" the "licenses" to such WSI forgeries as e.g.:

- Anastasia - a WSI forgery of Anna
- Avian - a WSI forgery of Avant Garde
- Basset - a WSI forgery of Baskerville
- Bastian - a WSI forgery of Buster
- Boston - a WSI forgery of Bodoni
- etc. etc. etc.

In a few rare cases, e.g. in the WSI forgery Bulletin, Michael Charness disclosed the fonts he had forged (e.g. here the font Flyer with the Linotype-Hell "copyright" notice, see list below), but usually Ferrari addict Michael ("Mike") Charness (see <http://www.fca-se.com>) removed all "copyright" notices and replaced them by his own "copyright" notices.

Not all fonts produced by Michael Charness are font forgeries. He also sold handwriting fonts as new digitisations, and Charness also sold fonts digitized from old typeface specimen books, e.g. the Bauer font Legende, which he sold under the fancy name Aladdin:

The typeface Legende was published by Bauersche Gießerei in 1937. Its digitisation was sold by Mike Charness since 1992 as "Aladdin". Ten years later, since 2002, URW++ is selling this font as Legende.

Font forger Michael Charness has typeset his company logo in "his own" typeface Palisade, which is Michael Charness's font forgery of Hermann Zapf's Palatino:

That's how it is done in the font forging industry: You grab the fonts sold by others, delete the "copyright" notices, insert your own "copyright" notices and then sell these forgeries to thousands of idiots, and when you have made a big fortune, you buy a Ferrari and declare:

"WSI's fonts are not freeware, but are commercial software protected by copyright."

(see <http://www.weatherlysystems.com>)

Most WSI forgeries listed below are still offered on font CDs sold via Ebay and similar outlets.
